Create Retirement Confidence

Achieving a full and satisfying retirement requires an income that provides real lifestyle confidence.

A guaranteed stream of income for your retirement helps provide the freedom to live the promises you made to yourself along the way — to travel, to experience, to go where life takes you — without financial concerns, without boundaries. You worked hard to accumulate assets to ensure you could one day pursue those promises.

Your ultimate objective in saving over the years was to someday provide spending flexibility for your needs and wants. Now that day is here and IncomeSource, a single premium immediate annuity, converts your retirement savings to retirement income; income that can last a lifetime. Designed to provide a dependable, guaranteed stream of income, IncomeSource is issued by Integrity Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, OH, and National Integrity Life Insurance Company, Greenwich, NY.

Peace of mind comes with simplicity and security. Your IncomeSource payouts are automatic and guaranteed, giving you the financial freedom to relax and enjoy the retirement you deserve.

IncomeSource is backed by the full financial strength of Integrity and National Integrity — both among the insurance industry's most highly rated companies.

Secure a Lifetime Income

Why an Income Annuity?

An income annuity can help support a comfortable and worry-free retirement. Convert a portion of your wealth into an income stream and increase your likelihood of covering your basic expenses for as long as you live.

Add Up the Advantages

If you don't require unlimited access to all your assets and want to know you can depend on regular, guaranteed income, consider how many of these reasons apply to you:

- You are entering retirement or are already retired.
- You have resources (pension distributions, retirement accounts, brokerage accounts) that you wish to convert into an income stream. (Surrender charges or penalties may apply.)
- You are concerned about outliving your income and savings.
- You value a guaranteed source of income in retirement.
- You want to select among various payout options.
- You have other retirement resources that can be invested for growth.
- You seek freedom from having to manage your savings to generate income.
- You wish to provide income for your spouse or beneficiaries.

A Source for More than Retirement Income

Secure and guaranteed, your income stream can supplement your current income or provide income for other purposes, such as:

- Finance a business purchase being made on installments.
- Provide deferred compensation to an employee on separation or retirement.
- Shelter assets in cases of personal bankruptcy (with proper tax counseling).
- Pay the premiums on life insurance and long-term care policies.
- Make payments on a mortgage.
- Create a charitable giving plan.
- Fund a divorce decree.
- Underwrite education expenses.
- Support the care of someone who is unable to work.

Benefits of IncomeSource

Increasing Payout Options Protect Your Purchasing Power

Are you concerned that rising prices will wreak havoc on your purchasing power, especially over an extended period? To help ensure that your income stream remains strong throughout the years, IncomeSource offers a guaranteed Increasing Payout Option (IPO):*

- Selecting the IPO increases your annual payouts over the length of your income stream by a compounded interest rate of 1% to 5%. It's available with any income option you choose. There is no percentage or dollar limit to the maximum increase.
- The option is not tied to any outside index or indicator. Once a contract is signed, the option cannot be added or removed, as the income stream is adjusted from the start of the contract.

Commutation Options Provide Cash Access and Control

You can access cash in the form of a lump-sum payout from IncomeSource in specific instances. The "commuted" value is the present value of future payouts. Commutation benefits (automatically included and available for both qualified and nonqualified contracts), provide valuable liquidity if unforeseen needs arise, such as an unexpected relocation or a health-related matter. And commutation can be taken multiple times, as defined in the contract. The commutation option is not available with life only payouts, temporary life payouts and certain period payouts of less than 10 years.

- Access While an Annuitant Lives

A living annuitant commutation benefit allows owners receiving payouts (containing certain period payouts of 10 years or longer or life contingent payouts with guaranteed payouts) to commute, that is to say, "cash out," a percentage of all remaining payouts. There are no upfront, built-in charges for having access to the ability to commute. Once the commutation benefit is elected, the original payout amount is reduced. At the end of the certain period, if a life contingency (payouts for life or for two lives) exists, the remaining payouts (including any Increasing Payout Option) resume as if there was no commutation. IncomeSource must be in force for at least one year for this benefit to be exercised.

- Access After an Annuitant Dies

A deceased annuitant commutation benefit allows beneficiaries to commute, or "cash out," the remaining certain period payouts upon the death of the annuitant (for a single life annuity) or the last living joint annuitant (for a joint and survivor annuity). The lump sum will be the present value of the remaining certain period payouts discounted at a single interest rate stated in the contract.

* IPO payments will initially be lower than under a payout option without the IPO. IPO payment amounts increase annually and will at some point, depending on the payout elected and the annuitant's longevity, exceed those received under an option without the IPO. If the annuitant dies prior to his or her life expectancy, the payee may receive less total income under an IPO option than without one.

Select Your Guaranteed Income Stream

- Payouts for life (single life) — Provides the highest income payout amount of any of the life options because payouts will continue only while the annuitant is alive.
- Payouts for two lives (joint and survivor) — Lifetime income for as long as one of two annuitants (often spouses) is alive. Payouts to the survivor can remain level or be reduced. A period certain may also be included.
- Payouts for life or for two lives with a certain period — Lifetime income with a guarantee that payouts will continue for at least a specified period. This ensures that, in the event of death, payouts will continue to a beneficiary until the end of the specified period.
- Payouts for life or for two lives with cash refund — Lifetime income with a money-back guarantee that at least the single premium will be returned, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive. If payouts before death are less than the premium paid, the beneficiary receives the difference in a lump-sum refund.
- Payouts for life or for two lives with installment refund — Another lifetime income option with a money-back guarantee that at least the single premium will be returned, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive. If payouts before death are less than the premium paid, the beneficiary receives the payouts on the same installment schedule until the full premium is refunded.
- Payouts for a certain period — A non-lifetime option where payouts will continue for a period of time (from five to 30 years) specified by the owner. Payouts continue until the end of the specified period, regardless of whether the annuitant is alive.
- Temporary life payouts — Income will continue for a period of time (from five to 30 years) specified by the owner, only while the annuitant is alive.

Payouts end at the annuitant's death unless a certain period or installment refund option is selected. If a payout for life or for two lives is selected, whether the payouts received are less than or greater than the premium paid will depend on how long the annuitant(s) lives. All options may not be available.

Understand the Parties to an Annuity Contract

- The owner, generally the person who buys the contract, may exercise the rights and privileges provided in it. The owner makes all of the decisions.
- The annuitant is the person whose life determines the income payouts. The annuitant makes no decisions about the contract and has no rights in it. In most cases the owner is the annuitant. If not, then the annuitant has no ownership rights.
- The beneficiary, also named by the owner, is the person who may receive any remaining benefits at the death of the owner or the annuitant, depending on the terms of the contract.

Stability and Security: What Could Be More Essential?

An immediate annuity is permanent. An owner has no access to the premium, which converts to income payouts. A contract has no cash value, no death benefit and can't be surrendered. Terms such as the payout amounts, timing and rates cannot be changed, unless commutation elected. Payouts end at annuitant death unless certain period or installment refund option elected. Life contingent payout may be less or more than premium based on length of annuitant(s) life. Life and Temporary life payouts provide no benefit on or after the death of the annuitant(s).

Payment of benefits under the annuity contract is the obligation of, and is guaranteed by, the insurance company issuing the annuity. IncomeSource is issued by Integrity Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, OH, or National Integrity Life Insurance Company, Greenwich, NY.
